Whitney Conversation With Menton Ruled Out of Trial

1ST WITNESS TELLS OF WARNINGS

Defense Objection Is Sustained In Ouster Case Hearing

A conversation last Nov. 16 between County Recorder Justine Whitney and District Attorney W. F. Menton leaked into the limelight today at Miss Whitney's ouster trial on charges of willful and corrupt misconduct in office. But the conversation was shown out again before it was related, when Presiding Judge G. K. Seovel sustained a defense objection to any supposed admission or confession before it is proved by testimony of witnesses.

Conversation Ruled Out
The conversation was mentioned by Assistant District Attorney James L. Davis in his opening statement to the jury, which was selected late yesterday. Mr. Davis said he would show that Miss Whitney telephoned Mr. Menton and then went to his office. As he started to tell what the conversation was, Defense Counsel O. A. Jacobs objected and the matter was dropped when the court made the ruling.

Mr. Menton is expected to be a witness in the case.
Another conversation in which Robert Mize, deputy in the recorder's office, handling Torrens title matters, assertedly took part, also was reserved for testimony of witnesses. Mr. Mize testified before the grand jury that he loaned Miss Whitney $1000 on one occasion to complete her deposits with the county treasurer.

Deputy Auditor Testifies
The grand jury's investigation against Miss Whitney charged that she failed to file reports with the auditor at the time required by law and that she used funds collected in one month to complete deposits for the preceding month. Deputy County Auditor L. H. Eckel, the first witness to give oral testimony, told the jury of nine men and three women that he went to Miss Whitney's office several times and reminded her that her monthly settlement was past due. He said invariably she would set a date on which she would make her returns. The law requires reports to be filed with the auditor not later than the fifth of each month.

Another Ruled Out
The settlement for February, 1935, was made on March 3, Mr. Eckel said. An order was sent to the treasurer from the auditor's office, to accept the settlement. But receipts in the transaction now show the date of March 13, Mr. Eckel said. He also said the treasurer had signed the settlement. This statement was ruled out of the record by the court after a defense objection. (Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 2)

They'll Pray Here for Rain Tomorrow Night; But Will They Need To?

Folks have exhorted, cussed, argued, coaxed and harangued to get a little rain for the community. Now the city is going to pray for it.

From the executive board of the Ministerial Union of Santa Ana this morning came a request that churches of the city at prayer meetings tomorrow night set aside a portion of their service to pray for rain.

On the executive board are the Rev. Dr. A. E. Kelly, president; The Rev. C. D. Hicks and Miss Mary Howard.

But they may not have to pray very hard, for this forenoon it began to drizzle in Santa Ana, with indications that the city might have a sizeable rain before the prayer meetings get under way.

Government Turns On Machinery for Big Bonus Pay-off

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28. (P)—Presses thundered and an army of clerks toiled today as the government tackled the task of paying off 3,518,191 World war bonuses—the most tremendous job of its kind in history.

Even as he threw the pay-off machinery into gear, President Roosevelt issued an appeal saying that unless veterans need the money for some "permanently useful purpose," they should retain as nest eggs the cashable "baby bonds" which congress voted them over the executive's veto.

PRISON FIGHT KILLS LOEB

Bobby Frank Slayer Is Fatally Wounded By Fellow Convict

BULLETIN
JOLIET, Ill., Jan. 28. (P)—Richard Loeb, one of the slayers of little Bobby Frank, died at 3:05 p. m. today after being stabbed by a fellow convict at the state penitentiary here.

JOLIET, Ill., Jan. 28. (P)—Richard Loeb, serving 99 years and life sentences in Joliet prison for the slaying of little Bobby Frank, was taken to the hospital today suffering from severe razor slashes inflicted by a fellow convict, James Day, Chicago.

Warden Joseph Ragen said Loeb was supervising Day and two other convicts who were cleaning up a room to be used as headquarters for the prison correspondence school, managed by Loeb and his companion in the Frank killing, Nathan Leopold.

"Evidently Loeb and Day got into a fight," Warden Ragen said, "and Loeb was hurt. His injuries are severe—a gash in the shoulder and another on the abdomen."

"Guards outside the room, formerly used as the officers kitchen and located just off the main dining room, heard the fight," Ragen explained. "They rushed in and found Loeb on the floor. Day had the razor in his hand."

Day is serving a 1 to 10 year sentence for larceny.

He entered the prison in 1932. Reports from the prison hospital were that Loeb's injuries were regarded as extremely serious.

Young Bobby Franks was kidnapped May 21, 1924, while on his way home from school. The next morning his body, badly mutilated, was found beneath a culvert near 118th street.

BANKER HERE ON STAND IN FITTS CASE

Mellenthin Tells About Loan Request Made By District Attorney

A. I. Mellenthin, president of the First National bank here, injected striking testimony today into the perjury trial of District Attorney Byron Fitts at Los Angeles. Mr. Mellenthin was drawn into the case through a financial transaction which he said Mr. Fitts once proposed to him.

He said that in 1931 Mr. Fitts attempted to get a $4000 personal loan on a $7300 trust deed signed by Lucien Wheeler. The loan was not made by Mr. Mellenthin. Mr. Wheeler was private investigator for John P. Mills in the Hollywood "girl hater" case. Mr. Fitts is accused of perjury in connection with grand jury investigation of the dropping of morals charges against Mr. Mills.

Owned Monrovia Land
Before coming to Santa Ana, Mr. Mellenthin was in the banking business in Monrovia. He said he owned four acres adjoining Mr. Fitts' present home in Monrovia. Mr. Wheeler has testified he negotiated with Mr. Fitts parents to purchase a Claremont orange grove before morals charges were brought against Mr. Mills.

"During 1930 and 1931, Mr. Fitts on a number of occasions talked to me about purchasing the four acres as an addition to his grove," said Mr. Mellenthin.

Tells Deal Request
"One day in July of 1931, Mr. Fitts called me by phone and asked if I would be interested in taking over a $7300 trust deed on a piece of property at Claremont in exchange for the four acres at Monrovia."

"I asked who was involved in the paper, and Mr. Fitts replied that the trust deed was signed by a man named Wheeler. He told me Wheeler was a private investigator. I went out and looked at the Claremont property. Later I visited District Attorney Fitts at his office and informed him I was not interested in the Claremont place in any way."

Fitts asked if I knew anyone who might be interested in making him a loan on the $7300 trust deed. I replied that I believed Mr. George S. Brooks of the Monterey Park bank might. Later, by appointment, I met Mr. Fitts at Monterey Park and took him to the bank. There I introduced him to Mr. Brooks."

COASTAL WINDS AID MID-WEST

CHICAGO, Jan. 28. (P)—Warm winds from the Pacific coast thawed out the frozen Midwest today, but the weather men kept his ear-muffs handy for another siege of zero cold.

A 30-degree jump in temperatures was forecast before nightfall for Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and parts of Michigan and Wisconsin where the mercury has hugged the zero mark for a full week.

Meanwhile a new snowstorm began sweeping southeastward in company with the warmer weather, whitening the Northwest from the Dakotas to Nebraska.

CITY ASSURED $85,000 FOR STREETS

Major Portion Of Fund To Be Used For South Main Widening Job

Street improvements amounting to approximately $85,000 of which the major portion will be used for the widening of South Main street from Fairview avenue to Delhi road, were assured for Santa Ana today with the signing of an agreement for the work between the city and the department of public works.

Earl Lee Kelly, director of public works, today approved the project, which will be financed entirely with gas tax money and with Works Progress administration funds allocated to the state for highway improvements.

$24,000 U. S. Aid
Gas tax funds will provide $61,000 of the total, while the remaining $24,000 will be apportioned from federal funds. The latter amount, with approximately $1,000 of the gas tax, will be expended for the proposed improvement of South Main street.

A total of $34,680 will be expended on the Main street improvement, which calls for the widening of pavement six feet, and the construction of curbs, gutters and sidewalks on the west side.

Street Maintenance
Next important unit of the project is that calling for maintenance of streets comprising the state highway routes within the city, to be done at a cost of $10,450. All of the work, with the exception of that on South Main, will be performed by the city.

2 ARMY FLIERS DIE IN FALL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28. (P)—Two army fliers were injured fatally today when the plane in which they left Pope field, Fort Bragg, N. C., this morning crashed in landing at Bolling field.

They were identified as Second Lieut. William K. Payne of the air corps reserve and Lieut. Dudley E. Whitten of Wharton, Tex.

Blizzards Don't Bother Quints; Sleep Outside

CALLANDER, Ont., Jan. 28. (P)—While most of the continent shivered in the past week's blizzard and sought firesides, the Dionne quintuplets slept outdoors every morning and afternoon, once in 30 below zero weather.

Twenty months old today, they spent hours on their hospital veranda in their usual perfect health.

Allen Would Confiscate Drunk Drivers' Cars

"Arrest" the car as well as the drunk driver.
A new and drastic plan for preventing accidents by keeping intoxicated motorists off the highway was proposed today by Superior Judge James L. Allen.

Judge Allen said today he will place his scheme before the next state legislature and seek to have it enacted into law.
Judge Allen, before whom hundreds of drunken drivers have passed for sentence, has given the problem much careful thought during recent years. He proposes handling the situation in two ways. He would first recognize the difference between minor drunk driving offenses where there is no accident or personal injury and the serious ones where someone is hurt or property is destroyed.

In the less serious cases, under his plan, cars of intoxicated drivers would be impounded for periods of three months or more. Operators' licenses would be taken and the guilty drivers would be ruled off the highways for a certain period. These restrictions would be imposed as conditions of probation.

Such a system, Judge Allen explained, would leave the driver free to support his family, whereas if he were jailed they might become a charge on the county.

The loss of the car for a period of three months or more, with perhaps a fine in addition, would be a more effective punishment than a jail term, Judge Allen believes.

For the more serious offenses the new law would have sharper teeth. A drunken driver in this class would be dealt with severely and drastically. His car would be confiscated, taken entirely away from him forever. His license to drive would be permanently revoked. He would be ordered never to pilot an automobile again.

In addition he probably would be fined. These strong measures would be imposed as conditions of probation.

Long's Aide Dies

Gov. Oscar K. Allen, above, of Louisiana, long-time political ally of the late Senator Huey P. Long, who died suddenly in Baton Rouge, La., late of a brain hemorrhage. Only last week Allen was swept into the office of the late Senator Long by a landslide vote.

Submarine In Dry Dock Explodes At Manila; One Man May Die

MANILA, P. I., Jan. 28. (P)—Eight Cavite navy yard workers were injured, five seriously, when the U. S. navy submarine S-40 exploded today. None of the navy personnel was injured.

The submarine was seriously damaged.
The S-40 was in drydock being overhauled when its batteries exploded. The exact cause of the blast was not immediately determined.

The navy yard is on Cavite, naval base at the entrance to Manila bay. All of the injured are Filipinos. Hospital physicians reported one would probably die.

MORRO CASTLE HEADS JAILED

NEW YORK, Jan. 28. (P)—Federal Judge Murray Hulbert today sentenced Eben S. Abbott, chief engineer of the liner Morro Castle, to four years in prison and William F. Wams, acting captain, to two years. They were convicted of criminal negligence in connection with the burning of the ship Sept. 8, 1934, with a loss of 124 lives.

Henry E. Cabaud, executive vice president of the New York and Cuba Mail Steamship company, operators of the vessel, was given a suspended sentence of one year, and fined $5000. He was paroled pending payment of the fine. The company was fined the maximum of $10,000.

'BOSS' TAKEN BY SUDDEN ILLNESS

Stricken Executive Had Been Nominated For Senate Position

BATON ROUGE, La., Jan. 28. (P)—Gov. Oscar K. Allen, for years the political associate and successor to the late Huey P. Long as political "boss" of Louisiana, died suddenly today after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage.

Governor Allen was 55 years old. He became leader of the powerful political machine after Senator Long's violent death and was nominated to succeed Long in the United States senate.

Allen was stricken at the executive mansion at 8:50 a. m. C. S. T., just as he was leaving for the state capital.

Aid No Help
Medical aid was rushed to the governor, but he died at 10:40 a. m. In the corps of physicians was Dr. C. A. Lorio, one of those who attended the late senator after he was shot down last September in the corridors of the skyscraper state capitol he built in Baton Rouge as a symbol of his power.

Soon after the governor's death was announced by A. P. White, his secretary, officials and friends hurried to the executive mansion. A crowd quickly gathered outside.

'More Than Death'
The news found its way quickly to Atlanta, where the Long forces were giving their aid to the "grass roots" conference of southern Democrats and anti-New Dealers called by Gov. Eugene Talmadge, of Georgia, to meet tomorrow in Macon.

The Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, leader of the late senator's share-croppers' clubs, commented at once:

"It takes more than death to wipe out the words 'Long and Allen.'"

Governor Talmadge said "the death of Allen is a great loss, not only for the state of Louisiana but for the nation."

Lieut. Gov. James A. Noe, Monroe, automatically succeeded Governor Allen as chief executive of Louisiana. As lieutenant governor and presiding officer of the state senate, he has always been a (Please Turn to Page 9, Col. 3)

RULER BURIED AS NATION SORROWS

Monarch Laid To Rest With Simple Rites In Royal Vault

By ROGER D. GREENE
(Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press)
WINDSOR, Eng., Jan. 28.—The long funeral journey of George V ended today in the royal vault of St. George's chapel, the burial crypt of Great Britain's kings.

It was a service of pomp, circumstance, and sorrow—beginning with the removal of the body from Westminster Hall in London and the silent tribute of tens of thousands of spectators massed along the cortege route and ending with a simple burial service.

Funeral Delayed
King George's body came to Windsor at 1:08 p. m., 33 minutes later than scheduled. The delay was in strange contrast to George's punctuality throughout life. The mourning crowds in London had delayed the passage of the cortege.

The nation paused for two minutes of silence at 1:30 p. m., the time the coffin was to have been lowered into the crypt, but the delay in the marching of the cortege set the time of actual burial later, 100,000 Mourners
From London, the king's body was brought by railroad train to Windsor. One hundred thousand mourners were assembled along the mile-and-a-half route from the railroad station to St. George's chapel.

An honor guard carried the coffin from the train over a scarlet carpet to a gun carriage waiting at the station door. Then the procession started its uphill journey to Windsor castle.

The king's coffin was borne out across the ancient battlements of the royal palace—tolling for the dead monarch.

Sons Follow Coffin
The new king, Edward VIII, and his three brothers, for the second time today, fell in behind their father's coffin to walk in procession.

They were preceded in the cortege by the widowed Queen Mary, who rode in a carriage drawn by Windsor greys.

As the curfew bell rang, a minute gun began to salute.

One hundred and fifty sailors again drew the carriage on which the royal regalia of crown and sceptre rested.

King's Boots Muddy
King Edward, whose uniform boots were muddy from his walks through the streets of London and Windsor, stood silently as the coffin was lifted from the gun carriage and carried into the church through the lines of honor guards.

The queen mother, who was brave throughout the morning's trying rites, was seen to blink her (Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 1)

DR. TOWNSEND ILL IN BED

LONG BEACH, Jan. 28. (P)—Dr. F. E. Townsend, 67-year-old founder of the old age pension plan bearing his name, denied himself to visitors today and retired to his bed because of a severe cold. Mrs. Townsend described her husband as "quite sick."

Dr. and Mrs. Townsend returned to their home here from the East last night. Commenting on Senator Borah of Idaho, mentioned as a Republican presidential possibility, Dr. Townsend said: "I am writing Senator Borah and putting the matter squarely before him. If he will come out for us and say publicly what he has said privately, then we will get back of him, and our balance of power will elect him."

UNCLE OF F.D.R. SHOOTSELF

EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 28. (P)—Paul R. Forbes, uncle of President Roosevelt, was found shot to death in his locked apartment here last night.

Justice of the Peace M. V. Ward, saying he was satisfied the 75-year-old man shot himself, announced no inquest would be held. Forbes was shot in the roof of the mouth with a revolver.

Forbes' widow was the former Miss Doris Delano, sister of President Roosevelt's mother. Friends said Mrs. Forbes lived in Paris, and that she and her husband had lived apart about 15 years.

NEW DEALERS BRAND AL SMITH AS 'APOSTLE OF REACTION'

ICKES, LEWIS RAP FORMER GOVERNOR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28. (AP)—Depicting Alfred E. Smith, as now an apostle of reaction, New Deal adherents contended today any Democratic losses he would cause the administration in November would be overbalanced by Republican liberal support.

Secretary Ickes in press conference and John L. Lewis, addressing the United Mine Workers as president, both expressed the view that Smith had gone back on principles he long had held sacred.

Robinson to Answer
Senator Robinson of Arkansas was expected to do likewise in the official reply to the former New York governor by radio tonight.

Instead of following Smith on "a walk" if President Roosevelt is renominated, Ickes said Middle Western and Far Western liberals were "quite likely to do the contrary."

Attacks League
"A billion dollar dinner was given here the other night," Lewis said, "and that dinner was addressed by a man who had made reputation for himself as a great commoner."

Scattered boos went up when he mentioned Smith's name. "This man appeared before that billion dollar dinner and performed for his masters," he continued.

At the same time, political observers were waiting eagerly to hear what Senator Borah (R., Ida.) who is boomed by his friends for the Republican Presidential nomination, will say when he takes the stump tonight in Brooklyn.

'Hands of Esau'
The speech which Robinson, the majority leader of the senate, will make tonight over a Columbia broadcasting system network at 10 p. m., eastern standard time, (7 o'clock, Santa Ana time) is expected to give an inkling of the administration's attitude toward the "walk" that Smith threatens to take.

As Robinson labored on the address, his contents were not disclosed, but the title, "The Hands of Esau," gave a hint of its nature. It recalled the story in Genesis of how Jacob obtained the blessing of his blind father Isaac.

Jacob put the skins of kids on his hands to disguise himself as the hairy-handed Esau, and it is recorded that Isaac said: "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are hands of Esau."

eyes as the Bishop of Winchester started the reading of the lesson: "And I saw a new Heaven and a new earth."

He read the comforting words: "And God shall wipe away all tears * * * there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying."

As the Archbishop of Canterbury ended the service of committal to the grave, King Edward stepped forward. The coffin began sinking slowly beneath the level of the floor.

Edward himself sprinkled earth on the wooden case which held the mortal remains of his father.

First of Windsor
George is the fifth of the 38 kings of England, since the time of the Norman conquest, to be entombed in the chapel. However, he is the first king of the modern House of Windsor to be interred there.

Some of the kings besides whom George's body was placed have slept their deep sleep in that crypt 300 years and more.

Three feet from George's coffin lies that of Henry VIII and Charles I. A bit farther away is the coffin of George III, from whose reign the American colonies revolted, giving birth to the United States.

Six Kings There
Immediately after the burial service, the royal family and the regal entourage of visitors returned to the station and entrained for London, bringing to a close eight days of the most solemn high ceremonial.

ROYAL DINNER PRECEDES FUNERAL FOR KING
(Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press)
LONDON, Jan. 28.—On the eve of the funeral for the late King George V, the heads of seven European states dined at Buckingham Palace around a table set with gold plate, the value of which has been estimated at £2,000,000 ($10,000,000).

The royal dinner, required under diplomatic procedure, was followed by a formal palace reception at which King Edward welcomed the crown princes of two more nations, the vice chancellor of a third and the representatives of 28 other countries, including Norman H. Davis, chief American delegate to the London naval conference and President Roosevelt's "ambassador-at-large."

King Edward and all his brothers personally expressed appreciation to Davis for the sympathy displayed by official and private circles in the United States on the death of the 70-year-old King George.

MORE ABOUT WHITNEY

Mr. Davis then questioned Mr. Eckel along another line and he testified Miss Whitney came back to the office on March 13 and said she was ready to proceed with making the settlement.

Miss Gladys Field, deputy treasurer, was on the stand at noon. Her testimony was expected to reveal the reason why the settlement was made March 8 and the receipts show the date of March 13.

In his opening statement Mr. Davis outlined the nine specifications in the grand jury accusation, which is a civil matter aimed at removing Miss Whitney from office. Specification one charges that in September, 1935, Miss Whitney collected fees amounting to $3506.73 but that she did not settle with the county until Oct. 26, or 21 days after the date required by law. The specification asserts that she had collected $650 in October and used that money to complete her settlement for September.

Reveals "Charge Account"
"To prove that she did use the $650 to take care of the shortage in September, we will show that she had an arrangement with the Abstract and Title Insurance Company and the Orange County Title Company wherein at the end of each month a full settlement was made," said Mr. Davis. "At the beginning of the following month there was a charge account, and when she checked money she could ask for it and get it."

The title companies do the bulk of the business with the recorder's office.

"We will show that on Oct. 25 she received from the Abstract and Title Insurance company $250 and from the Orange County Title company $400, making a total of $650," Mr. Davis continued. "By records of the First National bank we will show that on Oct. 25 those checks went into her account as recorder with other funds, and that when her check depositing fees with the county treasurer cleared the bank, she had a balance of $25.25 left."

Other Contentions
"We will show that in her affidavit filed with the auditor she stated the money she deposited was money for September," Mr. Davis said.

The small balance in the bank account after the settlement with the treasurer shows that the money collected from the title companies in October was used to make the September settlement, Mr. Davis contended.

"In two months of 1935," said Mr. Davis, "it will be shown that there was an overdraft in the recorder's account."

Mr. Davis contends that in signing affidavits before the auditor, Miss Whitney swore to false statements in that the affidavit and statement set forth that the money collected was for a given month, whereas in fact, he contends, the money was collected in a succeeding month.

County Clerk J. M. Backs was the first witness called. Mr. Jacobs stipulated that his records formed by the city, Mr. Kelly said.

The gas tax money to be provided represents the allocation made by the legislature for expenditure within municipalities. The first allocation in 1933 provided the proceeds of a quarter of a cent of the tax money for the maintenance and improvement of city streets comprising state highway routes. At the following session in 1935, the legislature allocated an additional quarter cent for expenditure on important arterials within cities. The allocations are made on a population basis.

Other Improvements
Other street improvements designed in the agreement, on which work will start in the near future, are: Installation of electric traffic signals on Main street at First and Seventeenth streets, $3500; sealing coat on pavement on the Santa Ana river bridge, $450; seal coat on Flower street, from Fifth to Eighth streets, $436; Bristol street, from Seventeenth to Ocean avenue, $2693; Fruit street from Sixth to Garfield streets, $556; Fifth street, from Van Ness to Broadway, $1298; resurfacing pavement on Broadway, from Sixth to Eighth streets, $6480; seal coat on Seventeenth street, from Flower to west city limits, $1036; seal coat on Edinger street, from Main to Bristol, $990; maintenance of Seventeenth, Fourth and McFadden streets, $1960.

The seven prospective jurors excused by the people were Mrs. Clara Middleton, Costa Mesa; Arthur F. Duckman, Anaheim; Mrs. Nina Smith, Fullerton; William F. Peterson, Santa Ana; Zola Maag, Anaheim; C. J. Guthaus, Fullerton, and William O. Day, Huntington Beach.

Those excused by the defense were F. P. Townsend, Mrs. Vincentia Hill, Mrs. Ruth Eisele and Mrs. Helen C. Anderson, Santa Ana; Mrs. Irene Dean, Orange, and John Dierberger, Anaheim.

Mrs. Eisele was excused after she said she had voted for Harold Yost for recorder in 1934.

Orange county agreed today to pay food bills of prisoners at the county jail transferred here from Seal Beach, Tustin and Newport Beach during 1932, 1933 and 1934, which had been held up since that time due to a question of legality of the bills.

Request for the county to write off the bills, which totaled $296.80, was made by Sheriff Logan Jackson. The largest amount was originally billed to Seal Beach, for $245, covering a period from September, 1932, to March, 1934.

It was explained that the bills represented food for prisoners originally arrested in the three cities at various times, charged with state offenses and moved to the county jail. The cities refused to pay accounts when bills were presented, asserting it was the county's responsibility. District Attorney Menton concurred in that opinion.

STORM DRAIN CONTRACT AWARDED

Contract for construction of the La Veta street storm drain in Orange was awarded this morning to the Macco Construction company of Clearwater for $26,000, subject to the approval of the Public Works administration.

The Macco company submitted the low bid on the project some time ago, at that time turning in a bid of $24,600, with the county to furnish and clear off the right-of-way.

All bids submitted at that time were rejected, due to phrasing in the contracts requiring the county to do this work. The fact of the company's taking over the work of preparing the right-of-way accounts for the raise in price. The work will be done as a WPA project, with Orange county as local sponsors. Work is expected to get under way in the near future.

REMODELING OF SCHOOL ASKED

The board of education last night asked Fred Eley, Santa Ana architect, to prepare plans for remodeling several class rooms in the Edison grammar school. He also was instructed to prepare estimates as to the cost of the work and present them to the board at its next regular meeting.

Requests for extension of leaves of absence were granted to Miss Elfreda Biggin and Miss Pearl Nicholson, who have been unable to assume their duties as teachers this semester because of illness.

Mrs. Marguerite West Hill has been assigned to fill the position temporarily vacated by Miss Biggin at Lathrop Junior High school. Miss Margaret Glenn was assigned to a full-time teaching position in the physical education department and study hall at the high school. The assignment was made at the request of Principal Lynn Crawford. Miss Wyllys Anderson was elected to a position on the physical education staff of the Willard Junior High school to fill a vacancy created by the temporary absence of Mrs. Dorothy Broadway Erickson.

HOSPITAL FIRE KILLS 2 BOYS
MALVERN, Pa., Jan. 28. (AP)—Seventeen children owed their lives today to a nurse and other persons who rescued them from a fire which burned to death two 6-year-old boys in a wooden pavilion of the Rush Memorial hospital for consumptives here.

Before the rescue work could be completed the structure collapsed. Fifteen a few minutes later found the dormitory a smoldering ruin. In the wreckage firemen recovered the bodies of John Loux and Edward Schumacher.

F. D. R. TO NAME DELEGATES
WASHINGTON, Jan. 28. (AP)—The California Democratic situation was touched on in a talk today between President Roosevelt and Senator McAdoo.

The senator noted that the California Democratic committee had asked the President to indicate his choice of delegates to the national convention and he expressed the belief later Mr. Roosevelt would do this. George Creel, former candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in California, joined in the White House talk for a few minutes.

Killer Slinks Low in Courtroom Seat

In contrast to his previous demeanor since his arrest for the killing of 14-year-old Mary Louise Stammer at Fresno, Elton Stone, ex-convict, is shown as he nervously slumped low in his seat during the Fresno court hearing at which he entered a plea of guilty to the crime. He was sentenced to death. At right is Deputy Sheriff John Ford, one of the officers who guarded Stone to prevent a possible lynching. (Associated Press photo.)

CRISIS IS NEAR HARBOR HOUSE IN DOCK WAR PLAN OKEHED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28. (AP)—Labor relations on the strife-torn Pacific coast marine front neared a crisis today.

The Sailors union of the Pacific, bereft of its official standing by action of the parent organization, the International Seamen's union, met last night but there was no announcement of what happened. Close observers predicted the charter revision may be the crucial step that will precipitate either extinction of the left-wing maritime Federation of the Pacific or united action by maritime unions throughout the nation.

TWO HURT IN CRASH
Mrs. Margaret Taylor, Tustin, and her 7-year-old daughter, Nancy, were in the county hospital today recovering from injuries sustained at 6 p. m. yesterday in a traffic accident in Tustin. Mrs. Taylor is suffering from deep facial lacerations and a possible fractured jaw. Her daughter also sustained lacerations about her face and head, and suffered the loss of several teeth. Brick Dust

Here and There With The Journal's
Rambling County Editor
By T. N. (BRICK) GAINES

WE'RE not going to be at all surprised to see hordes of archeologists swarming in San Juan Capistrano in a few days. And we hope they'll be as puzzled as some residents of the mission village at the find reported by workmen there.

Fred Stroschein's workmen, excavating for a new packing house building, unearthed the petrified carcass of a cat, nine feet underground, the other day.

We'll admit that the petrified carcass of a cat isn't anything to write home about, but when one turns up nine feet below ground level, in hard earth, apparently undisturbed for years, it's something else again.

It's hardly possible that anyone's dug that far to bury a family pet—six feet's the approved depth. Perhaps the Indians planted the beast as some sort of ritual—or maybe they were mad at him.

Anyway, the animal was planted where they're now building a new packing house for Fran Rogers. It's a fine monument, for just one cat.

Which reminds us of other buried treasure discovered in the county in past months.

For instance, that hidden case of Christmas cheer, claimed to be 35 years old, discovered by workmen under the Newport city hall last summer.

That find and its after effects offered as much mystery as the petrified puss. Our correspondent vouched for the story of the discovery, but could never find out what happened to the assortment of intoxicants.

Our hope is that this doesn't start a rush of treasure seekers, who might damage Newport's city hall.

I'm glad I'm not a badger. Especially if V. J. Woods, Capistrano resident, is around.

Mr. Woods was elected during the Sunday morning services here with I. D. Jaynes elected clerk; J. B. Sullivan, treasurer; Roland H. Upton, auditor; Walter McKenzie, Sunday school superintendent and Mrs. R. D. Bacon, treasurer of missions and benevolence.

Trustees elected were C. R. Allen, George Cole, Carl Bastady, Ormiston Kee and A. E. Rayburn. Deacons and deaconesses are Mr. and Mrs. Walter McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Bastady, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Crumrine, Albert Moon and Mrs. E. A. Kinney.

Mrs. Edward Rayburn is music director; Mrs. Ferol Smith, organist; Mrs. Lillian Neal, assistant organist; ushers are Albert Bastady, Glen Newman, James Bacon, Lewis Robinson, Robert Bacon, Robert Cole and Floyd Neal.

Not wishing to shoot the animal and thereby spoil the pelt, Mr. Woods, our correspondent says, hooked an electric wire to the badger and turned on the juice.

Now a nice pelt is hanging on the barn door, and the badger has gone to where there aren't any more trappers.

Would appear that we're going to find it necessary to start a rain guessing contest to give away our dog.

Last week we told about "Feller", part white and part black, friendly, guaranteed noiseless and a fine pal for some youngster. "Feller", we agreed, would be given to anyone who wanted him, if they guaranteed to treat him nicely. Apparently county kids are well supplied with pooches, or they aren't dog-conscious, because no one asked us about him.

Perhaps it'd be better if we staged our threatened rain contest. To the first person who guesses when it won't rain two inches, we'll give a very fine dog. How's that for a proposition?

"Oke" Maxwell, stray-dog fancier from Capistrano, has offered to find a home for our charge on some ranch in his part of the country, but we're afraid the sudden change to the southern climate might effect "Feller's" lungs, or something.

So, if anyone wants to guess when it's not going to rain, or just wants a fine, friendly dog, just let us know.

Notes to you: See where they're planning to widen the highway between Newport and Seal Beach? That'll give drivers a chance to go faster and then they won't have as much chance to have accidents. Or does it work that way? We haven't heard anything from Mayor Smith at San Clemente for some time. It should be about time for 'em to stage another fiesta or golf tournament or rodeo. We're waiting, mayor. . . . Newporters once were reported searching for the original steamship to operate in their harbor, 'way back when, to enter in their big celebration, planned for next May. Wonder if they've found it?

H. B. COUNCIL AWARDS CONTRACT FOR SEWAGE PROJECT

FEB. 15 SET FOR START OF WORK

$79,753 Is Low Bid for Job; Consider New Water System

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—The Hoagland Engineering and Contracting company, Long Beach, was awarded the contract for construction of a new waste water disposal system with a bid of $79,753 at last night's city council meeting. Installation of the system must be started by Feb. 15 and 140 days is allowed for completion of the project.

Mr. O'Connell, investigator for the PWA from the Los Angeles office, was present at the meeting. He declared that even though the bid was almost $5000 more than estimated by F. C. Currie of the Currie Construction company, the offer of financial aid from the PWA must be accepted immediately or the time limit would expire.

The treatment plant will cost $64,450. The system will require laying of 2882 feet of 21-inch vitrified clay pipe and 108 feet of cast iron pipe and five manholes.

A plan to provide the city with greater fire protection was soon adopted by the city council. The American States Water company proposed to the city council that the company lay an eight-inch pipe line on two streets within the six-inch mains already there.

The city engineer Harry Overmeyer and City Street Superintendent Henry Wirth for a report at next Monday evening's meeting.

City officials at the present time are figuring on the establishment of a municipally-owned water system.

CHURCH HEADS ARE ELECTED

BUENA PARK.—New officers for the Buena Park Congregational church were elected during the Sunday morning services here with I. D. Jaynes elected clerk; J. B. Sullivan, treasurer; Roland H. Upton, auditor; Walter McKenzie, Sunday school superintendent and Mrs. R. D. Bacon, treasurer of missions and benevolence.

Trustees elected were C. R. Allen, George Cole, Carl Bastady, Ormiston Kee and A. E. Rayburn. Deacons and deaconesses are Mr. and Mrs. Walter McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Bastady, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Crumrine, Albert Moon and Mrs. E. A. Kinney.

Mrs. Edward Rayburn is music director; Mrs. Ferol Smith, organist; Mrs. Lillian Neal, assistant organist; ushers are Albert Bastady, Glen Newman, James Bacon, Lewis Robinson, Robert Bacon, Robert Cole and Floyd Neal.

Not wishing to shoot the animal and thereby spoil the pelt, Mr. Woods, our correspondent says, hooked an electric wire to the badger and turned on the juice.

Now a nice pelt is hanging on the barn door, and the badger has gone to where there aren't any more trappers.

Would appear that we're going to find it necessary to start a rain guessing contest to give away our dog.

Last week we told about "Feller", part white and part black, friendly, guaranteed noiseless and a fine pal for some youngster. "Feller", we agreed, would be given to anyone who wanted him, if they guaranteed to treat him nicely. Apparently county kids are well supplied with pooches, or they aren't dog-conscious, because no one asked us about him.

Perhaps it'd be better if we staged our threatened rain contest. To the first person who guesses when it won't rain two inches, we'll give a very fine dog. How's that for a proposition?

"Oke" Maxwell, stray-dog fancier from Capistrano, has offered to find a home for our charge on some ranch in his part of the country, but we're afraid the sudden change to the southern climate might effect "Feller's" lungs, or something.

So, if anyone wants to guess when it's not going to rain, or just wants a fine, friendly dog, just let us know.

Notes to you: See where they're planning to widen the highway between Newport and Seal Beach? That'll give drivers a chance to go faster and then they won't have as much chance to have accidents. Or does it work that way? We haven't heard anything from Mayor Smith at San Clemente for some time. It should be about time for 'em to stage another fiesta or golf tournament or rodeo. We're waiting, mayor. . . . Newporters once were reported searching for the original steamship to operate in their harbor, 'way back when, to enter in their big celebration, planned for next May. Wonder if they've found it?

Holdout 'Arky'

Ho-Hum Item

Fullerton's Floyd (Arky) Vaughan, major league slugger king, became the first serious holdout on the baseball market today.

The quiet-mannered youth who led both the National and American leagues in hitting this past season—his mark was .385—wants more money and makes no bones about it.

Yesterday he said he had sent his contract to the Pittsburgh Pirates back to them unsigned.

When we talked to him by telephone last evening, Floyd expressed confidence that all would be worked out satisfactorily.

Which is as much to say that the hitting king will get just about what he wants from the Bucs management. He expects an "answer" in four or five days, he said.

"Have you ever had contract trouble with the Pirates before?" we asked.

"Well," laughed the black-haired shortstop. "Not very much."

Just how much more money he wants is a matter of conjecture, but Arky is noted for his business sense and no one has to tell him that anyone who can lead both leagues in hitting is worth more than coffee and doughnut money to his team.

Vaughan knows very well that he won't be able to set such a pace forever, and is wisely determined to get "his" while the getting is good.

Rumors—entirely unfounded, no matter how you look at them—have the Fullerton slugger asking for a yearly salary of $20,000.

Our guess, and you're entitled to one, is that last year Arky probably earned that much for the Pirates.

This year, with an even better, he certainly should be worth all that and a lot more.

This next season will be Arky's fifth with the Pirates. They appreciate his value enough so that they won't allow him to remain a holdout for very long.

In a few days you'll be reading of Arky putting his John Hancock on a new salary agreement.

There are fewer more pointed examples of miserable, muck-raking journalism today than the present campaign against auto races being conducted in a Los Angeles paper.

We don't offer any defense for auto racing other than this: Every pilot knows that each time he slips behind the wheel he literally takes his life in his hands. The sacrifice is his and his family's alone. We don't condemn or crucify an airplane pilot who seeks to set a speed mark—set his calling card—perhaps far more dangerous.

Such nonsense in headlines as "Stop Sacrifices of Human Lives" should be pooh-poohed loud and long. And this: "See a Death for a Dollar—Here's Toll of Martyr to Speed Lust." Here's a paragraph fit to make any honest journalist ashamed of his calling.

"Death's bloody fingers blotch a crimson stain across the automobile racing tracks of Southern California."

"Splintered skulls and shattered bodies... smoking heaps of twisted steel... death on the oil-stained, blood-stained speed-stained ribbons of concrete and vicious circles of dust. Death in the afternoon. Death under the lights. Death as the motorists drone a dirge; as the straining, sliding tires wear a requiem. Death to thrill the crowds; to satiate their lust for speed."

Ho-hum.

Both Spider Matlock and Al Gordon, who were featured in Sunday's "The Running of the $25,000 Santa Anita Derby on Feb. 15, the $12,500 Santa Anita Handicap on Feb. 22 and the $10,000 San Juan Capistrano Handicap on the concluding day, Feb. 29, expected to be the lure to bring turf enthusiasts from all parts of the globe to Santa Anita Park at Arcadia.

The success attending the second winter racing season at Santa Anita indicates that the meeting will more securely establish the Southern California plant as the winter racing center. Attendance and interest has been more than double the revival of racing in Southern California after a lapse of some 25 years.

Sixty-nine crack 3-year-olds have been nominated for the Santa Anita Derby that will be determined over a 1-1/16 mile course on Saturday, Feb. 15. Champions of the East will be pitted against the best in the West.

DONS BATTLE PHENIX FIVE TONIGHT

Shell Oil, Woolen Mills Launch Play-Off Series

COMMERCIAL FIVES PLAY TONIGHT

Scottie's Malters Face Medak Service of San Pedro in Prelim

Fighting for the honor of contesting with Scottie's malters for the 1936 championship, Commercial league basketball aggregations representing the Woolen Mills and Shell Oil collide in a play-off game at 8:30 tonight on the Y. M. C. A. hardwood.

Scottie's will appear in a 7:30 curtain raiser with the Medak Service quintet from San Pedro.

Rival lineups for the evening's feature were announced today as follows:

Woolen Mills—Ed Stephen and Fred Wiener, forwards; Harold Spangler, center; Russell Sullivan and Joe McChesney, guards.

Shell Oil—Pete LeGates and "Red" Irwin, forwards; Bob Errearte, center; Mike Reynolds and George Avila, guards.

Both lineups are subject to last-minute changes, according to Managers Quentin Matzen and M. M. (Buster) Devine.

With a fast-breaking offense, Shell Oil has blazed through the second-half in grand style, following a mediocre showing as an "also ran" in the first half.

The Woolen Mills, Santa Ana's entry in the Southern California Y. M. C. A. league, will be out to avenge an upset applied by Shell Oil in a recent game.

The fives appear about evenly matched for what looms as a torrid battle.

LUPE REFUSES COLLINS BOUT

With "tell Ernie Collins to go get a reputation before LeMon meets him again," Bob Singleton of Anaheim, Lupe LeMon's handler, yesterday refused to meet the Sherman Indian light heavyweight in a return battle at the Orange County Athletic club Friday night.

As a result, Hub Powell, Los Angeles Negro, was signed to face the Sherman Indian over the four-round route.

Collins, who got up from a sick bed to fight LeMon, asked for a return bout following his defeat last week, but now must be content to mark time before he again faces the Fullerton scrapper.

Powell recently dropped a close four-round bout to LeMon, who is rated on even terms with the Sherman puncher. Should Collins defeat Powell he may force the LeMon issue.

Local lads signed to appear against the crack Indian team are: Ken Holiday, Don Benzer, Jimmy Mercer, Al Garcia, Al Forrest, Danny Moreno and Henry Waterburg of San Juan Capistrano.

Bill Tilden to Quit Soon, Says Ellsworth Vines

PASADENA, Jan. 28. (AP)—Ellsworth Vines, professional tennis player, said today he believed "Bill" Tilden will retire next year.

"Bill is going to quit after this year," declared Vines on his return home for a match Saturday night with Lester Stinson.

"He's getting pretty old, and although he still plays a bang-up game, he finds that his legs do not hold up sufficiently to stand the hardships of professional touring."

Tilden, his first championship, the national amateur, in 1920 and ever since has been one of the dominating figures of both amateur and professional tennis.

Plenty of Help
Daviscourt, exponent of the simple struggle as the best means of subduing a rival, had plenty of help in the weird affair from Referee "Boo" Montana. Thanks to "Boo's" able assistance Dick polished off Freeman in two straight falls when what was billed as the main event turned out to be only a lackadaisical aftermath to the real attraction of the evening—a 45-minute no-fall battle between Sandor Szabo and Bill Sledge.

After choking flabby Freeman for the first 13 minutes of the bout, Daviscourt counted the first fall in 13 mins. 8 secs. with the old reliable body press. Freeman gasped and wheezed like a halibut on a platter from the attack that yielded gladly to Daviscourt's hold. Some 5 mins. 28 secs. later Daviscourt had licked both Freeman and Referee Montana to walk off with whatever honors went with winning. Montana repeatedly threatened Daviscourt about his strangling.

Daviscourt outbuffed "Boo" for a while and when he couldn't do that, he simply pocketed the arbiter on the nose. "Boo" left Dick alone then and the former champ went on with his work and neatly downed Freeman at the deciding fall—with a strange hold. No matter what the then docile Referee Montana chose to call it, it was still a strange hold. Smart ringers knew that "Dirty Dick" had figuratively thumbed his nose at Montana.

Ready for Trouble
Fired by the desultory exchange of punches by Daviscourt and Montana, the crowd was ready for trouble and egged Freeman to have at Daviscourt—with plenty of support in vocal evidence. Freeman had enough, though, and tripped meekly to his dressing quarters.

Probably most of the faithful have forgotten about the Daviscourt-Freeman affair by now and are happily smacking their lips over the Szabo-Sledge argument in which Sledge, a powerful newcomer, won a lot of followers by holding the mighty Hungarian to a draw.

Evenly matched physically, and equally well-versed in a number of the same intricate holds, Szabo and Sledge staged a bout that conjured memories of the Lutze-Colombo one-hour no-fall fray and the memorable Lutze-Lopez tangle in which the two greats strained 47 perspiring minutes without a fall.

They far outclassed the rest of the field, Sledge giving Szabo his hardest local battle since the brutal Hungarian lost to the Brandt Wee Willie Davis. SLEDGE HOLDS SZABO; DICK BEATS HERB

By FRANK ROGERS
Journal Sports Editor

What happens when two villains meet? If you're a wrestling fan, the answer is easy: The dirtier villain.

Sam Sampson's customers out at the highway 101 arena last night saw a graphic answer to this question when Dick Daviscourt, erstwhile California heavyweight champion, out-villained Herb Freeman, 210-pound New York Jew.

Plenty of Help
Daviscourt, exponent of the simple struggle as the best means of subduing a rival, had plenty of help in the weird affair from Referee "Boo" Montana. Thanks to "Boo's" able assistance Dick polished off Freeman in two straight falls when what was billed as the main event turned out to be only a lackadaisical aftermath to the real attraction of the evening—a 45-minute no-fall battle between Sandor Szabo and Bill Sledge.

After choking flabby Freeman for the first 13 minutes of the bout, Daviscourt counted the first fall in 13 mins. 8 secs. with the old reliable body press. Freeman gasped and wheezed like a halibut on a platter from the attack that yielded gladly to Daviscourt's hold. Some 5 mins. 28 secs. later Daviscourt had licked both Freeman and Referee Montana to walk off with whatever honors went with winning. Montana repeatedly threatened Daviscourt about his strangling.

Daviscourt outbuffed "Boo" for a while and when he couldn't do that, he simply pocketed the arbiter on the nose. "Boo" left Dick alone then and the former champ went on with his work and neatly downed Freeman at the deciding fall—with a strange hold. No matter what the then docile Referee Montana chose to call it, it was still a strange hold. Smart ringers knew that "Dirty Dick" had figuratively thumbed his nose at Montana.

Ready for Trouble
Fired by the desultory exchange of punches by Daviscourt and Montana, the crowd was ready for trouble and egged Freeman to have at Daviscourt—with plenty of support in vocal evidence. Freeman had enough, though, and tripped meekly to his dressing quarters.

Probably most of the faithful have forgotten about the Daviscourt-Freeman affair by now and are happily smacking their lips over the Szabo-Sledge argument in which Sledge, a powerful newcomer, won a lot of followers by holding the mighty Hungarian to a draw.

Dean Cromwell, veteran coach of the University of Southern California's national track champions, and Willis (Bill) Hunter, director of Trojan athletics, will be the featured speakers on a program arranged by Ralph (Bill) Cole, Tustin High school coach.

The Elks, through Grand Exalted Ruler Don Jerome, have issued invitations to Floyd (Arky) Vaughan of Fullerton, great shortstop of the Pittsburgh Pirates; to all coach of the county and their captains in all sports; to members of the football, baseball and track teams of Santa Ana High school and Junior college; to members of the American Legion post 131, Santa Ana; the board of directors of the Santa Ana chamber of commerce; to the Trojan, California and Stanford clubs of the county; the Santa Ana 20-30 club, and all sports writers of the district. Nearly all plan to be present.

The 20-30's will hold their regular dinner meeting at James cafe, 6:30 o'clock, but will adjourn in time to attend the complete program of the Elks.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28. (AP)—Maxie Rosenberg, who "retired" from the ring to become a movie actor, goes back to fighting tonight in a 10-round bout at the Olympic auditorium against Charley (Killer) Coates, Akron, O., Negro.

Rosenberg, former light-heavyweight champion, has been inactive in recent months. Coates is known as a hard puncher.

What To Do With 'Rabbit' Maranville? Asks Boston

By BILL KING
BOSTON, Jan. 28. (AP)—Soon after the management of the Boston Braves selects a new nickname—probably "The Bronchos"—it will take up the future of its popular infield veteran, Walter James Vincent Maranville.

Maranville, the 43-year-old "rabbit," now is nursing his mended leg and his hopes of breaking Hans Wagner's national league record of playing in 2785 games. Maranville needs 119 more to do it.

Played 20 Games
This major leaguer of 23-years' standing still considers himself capable of holding down a regular berth, despite the fact that the leg fracture he suffered in 1934 training camp would have forced the average baseball youngster into permanent retirement.

Last season he played in 20 games, during which he made but three errors, and boasted that his leg was stronger than ever, but teammates noticed that as he gaily skipped about, his forehead perspired, as if he was suffering intense pain. Sympathy, however, was rejected and the giver was told "you won't be around here when any of these rocks take my job."

Decision Due
Bob Quinn, team manager, although he has written twice to Maranville, has had no reply. He believes that Manager Bill McKechnie, who sadly agrees that the "rabbit" is done as a player, will make some sort of decision about him after Feb. 4.

Maranville's host of admirers are hoping that if McKechnie decides that their little idol's playing days are over, he will add him to his coaching staff.

LANE WILL SIGN AT S. D. TODAY
SAN DIEGO, Jan. 28. (AP)—President William H. Lane of the Hollywood baseball club, expected to sign on the dotted line today a contract which will move his Coast league franchise to San Diego.

An agreement was prepared with the harbor commission, looking to city reconstruction of a home field for the Hollywood diamond troupe.

Because of a proposed increase in rental and other issues, Lane announced cancellation of all negotiations with the Wrigley interests for future use of Wrigley field in Los Angeles.

Hollywood has shored the park with the Los Angeles club for several years.

Lane formally notified President W. C. Tuttle of the Coast league that the 19

BROWNE SAYS NAZI AIM IS SUPREMACY

By VIRGINIA SMITH

"Let us see to it that we do nothing to help Germany prepare for the war—that we offer enough passive resistance that the war will be held off until Germany regains her sanity from within."

That was the message to 2500 Santa Anas from Lewis Browne, noted lecturer, last night in a adult education lecture in the first Methodist church in which he painted modern military Germany under Chancellor Hitler as a menace to the rest of the world.

"Capitalism has Fascism in action; Fascism worse than any ever imagined in Italy. It is capitalism plus murder. Press and radio have been censored to one end—to prepare Germany for the 'great war' in which Germany shall be made supreme over all the world," the speaker declared.

Men in Germany are first Germans and then human beings, Mr. Browne said.

The drive on Jews in Germany is not really a campaign against the Jews, Mr. Browne declared. "The rich Jews are still there—those with the limousines and their pearls. Hitler made an attack on this one per cent of the population—for that's all the Jews there are in Germany—because he could make them the goat," he declared.

America and the rest of the world were blamed by the speaker for Germany's present "insanity," by Mr. Browne.

Blames Other Nations
"Germany set up the most democratic constitution immediately following the war, that the world has ever known," said Mr. Browne.

"We fought to make the world safe for democracy—we did make Germany safe for democracy. But her neighbors wouldn't let her carry on her own housekeeping."

Germany was given a debt of 30 billions of dollars to pay. That's as much as the national debt of America today—and we are a comparatively rich country—with the proceeds of the debt going to benefit Americans. Their money was going out of the country to foreigners.

"Then America thrust loans upon her. She couldn't pay her interest. Inflation and chaos resulted. The entire middle stratum of respectability was swept out. Hitler got himself into power and they became Germans again."

Germany today is a menace to the rest of the world, the speaker averred. Woman's only duty is to rear children. Children are meant to wear uniforms and become good Germans. Science is only to prepare for war.

Turns Clock Back
"Germany has attempted to turn the clock back into barbarism," the speaker said.

"But there is still a desire for enlightenment," declared Mr. Browne. "Books are still smuggled into the country. News of the world is furtively gained from a chance newspaper from Switzerland. Catholic priests and Lutheran pastors still believe in internationalism and the brotherhood of man."

War, he said, had been delayed so far only because Germany needed more money.

Games Bring Gold
"The Olympic Games are coming next summer and that will bring much good gold into Germany, and they need it. But perhaps there will be enough countries, far-sighted enough, to boycott the games. Perhaps some countries will see that it is not a competition of good sportsmanship but of good Nazis."

"We should do everything we can—not to fight Germany—not to strike against her—but to be sure we do not add strength to the fist that would strike at us," he declared.

Loud-speaking apparatus had been set up in the basement and Sunday school rooms of the church, carrying Mr. Browne's address to the crowd that overflowed the auditorium.

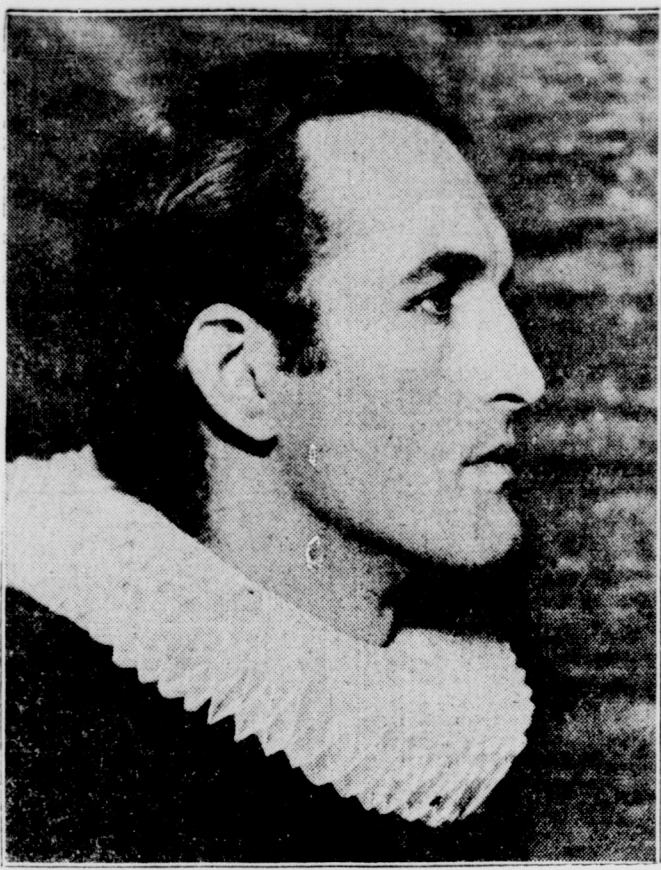

MOTORISTS IN LICENSE RUSH

More than 200 motorists were in line early this morning waiting for the California Highway Patrol office to open so that they might obtain their 1936 license plates. As the day progressed, still more motorists flocked to the courthouse and stood in line waiting their chances to make applications for the tags.

As the deadline, midnight of Jan. 30, draws near, Capt. Henry C. Meehan announced there still are hundreds of Orange county motorists who have not received their 1936 license plates. Captain Meehan today received a dispatch from the Sacramento headquarters of the highway patrol informing him that there absolutely will not be any period of grace following the deadline.

"This means double payment of the fee that is being charged at the rate of $1.75 per $100 valuation of an automobile," Captain Meehan said. "I hope that motorists realize that in many cases the 100 per cent penalty will amount to heavy and unnecessary expense on their part. In former years, it is true, an extension of time was granted during which licenses were issued without the need of a penalty. This year, nothing short of an act of legislature could extend the period beyond the deadline."

O. K. $30,000 APARTMENTS

The city council last night granted a permit to the Santa Ana Realty Corporation to erect buildings containing two eight-family apartments and two single family apartments on Tenth street near Broadway. The project is estimated to cost between $30,000 and $40,000. Construction is expected to start soon.

The permit was granted after a joint hearing had been held by the council and city planning commission. There were no oral or written protests. The application was presented by John D. Kelly, president of the realty corporation.

City Council Doings In Brief

The city council last night received a letter from the Santa Fe Transportation company, giving statistical information about its proposed intra-state bus line, which would pass through Santa Ana. The council has been asked to recommend to the state railroad commission that the application for a permit to operate the line be granted. The matter was referred to the council as a committee of the whole. A date will be set for a special hearing when arguments on both sides will be presented.

A temporary permit was granted to Dr. W. M. Tipple to conduct an office at 109 East Seventh street.

The application of C. M. Trusty and sons to hang a neon clock for the J. C. Horton furniture store was approved.

A permit was granted to the Santa Ana Realty corporation to erect an apartment house on 10th street just west of Broadway.

The request of M. E. Jemison for permission to operate a bowling alley in the basement of a Pacific building at Third and Broadway was granted on recommendation of Police Chief Floyd Howard and Police Commissioner Plummer Bruns.

On recommendation of Mr. Bruns and Mr. Howard, W. C. Osborne was granted permission to conduct a pool hall at 902 East Fourth street.

The application of Newell A. Lucas, president of United Cooperative Exchange No. 1, for permission for the exchange to operate a woodyard at 1520-1524 West Third street was denied on recommendation of the planning commission. The woodyard is now in operation at the above address. The council voted to allow the exchange 30 days in which to secure another location. Noise connected with sawing the wood has been objected to by neighbors, it was reported.

It was announced that the application of Williams and Warner to move their radio shop from 634 West First street to 422 South Flower street has been withdrawn.

City Attorney L. W. Blodgett and City Auditor Lloyd Banks reported on Santa Ana's legal and financial status in regard to the Metropolitan Water district, of which the city is a member. Mr. Blodgett's report showed that the city could withdraw on vote of the people but would have to continue its financial contributions to the district. Mr. Banks' report showed that the taxes paid to the district by the city will increase to a maximum of about $145,000 when the bonds mature and payments on principal begin.

Mayor Fred Rowland reported that the city's option on a 20-acre site at Washington and Flower, proposed as a park site, has been extended to Feb. 5.

City Auditor Banks said that electric bills for heating and lighting in the city hall for January amounted to $323.27, whereas the amount estimated in the budget was $413.

Plans for installation of concrete sewer pipe and other improvements in a new subdivision at Tenth and Flower streets, presented by Osborne Layton.

HIGH SCHOOL UNIT NEARS COMPLETION

Block A, the unit at the Santa Ana High school plant now under construction, will be completed and ready for occupancy by April 1, it was announced at the board of education meeting last night. Theron Means, general contractor in charge of construction, told the architect firm of Allison and Allison that the building was completed with the exception of certain minor details.

Interior decorating, which will cost approximately $4000, has not been started. Installation of the heating and lighting systems will commence in the near future, and installation of stage equipment for the auditorium will follow.

Decide on Decoration
The board last night decided to decorate the main auditorium, foyer, faculty room, library, lobby and little theater. A. N. Sorenson, Santa Ana painter who holds the contract for the painting the interior of the building, told the board he is a painter and not a decorator. His original bid for completely finishing the interior of the building was for $3200. As a result of the decision of the board to decorate certain portions, he agreed to do the class room and other portions of the building not included in the decorating scheme for $2400.

The Los Angeles firm of E. Peterson Company, decorators, was instructed to prepare plans for decorating the building. These plans will be submitted to the architects for approval, and as the result of a motion by Board Member M. B. Youel, the firm of Allison and Allison was instructed to apply to the state board of public building reconstruction for a change in the work order making it possible to spend the extra money needed for decoration purposes.

Scaffolding Removed
Matters were complicated somewhat when it was learned that the scaffolding in the little theater had been removed by the plasterers. Mr. Peterson said that in making his estimate of the cost he had understood the scaffolding would be left for his use. Since the scaffolding in the main auditorium is owned by Joe Catherine, plastering sub-contractor, it will be necessary to rent it from him. It was estimated construction of new scaffolding in the little theater and the rent of the scaffolding now in the main auditorium would cost approximately $150.

The Solar Lighting Fixture Company, Los Angeles, last night exhibited samples of decorative lights to be installed in the new building. Their work is being handled in Santa Ana by the Cave Electric Company. Although the negotiations were made through the local firm, board members felt the Los Angeles firm should make a definite bid as to price of the fixtures delivered in Santa Ana, and let other local firms bid on the price of installation. The Cave Electric Company offered to install the fixtures for $5000, which included the price of the fixtures.

Leon Eckles, in charge of the Santa Ana radio program to be broadcast from Los Angeles on Thursday in connection with Santa Ana day at the Times building, announced today that his program would feature the Eckles instrumental quintet, and pianist Arthur Cannon.

The broadcast will be held over KJH from 3:30 to 3:45 o'clock in the afternoon, in connection with the visit of this city's delegation to the new plant. The building will be opened for inspection on that day from 2:30 o'clock on.

J. N. Harding, chamber of commerce delegate to the executive committee making arrangements for the inspection day, reported yesterday on results of the meeting of the committee held in Los Angeles last week to work out plans for the event. Fifty guides will be on hand to escort visiting Santa Anas through the building, he said.

A special effort to obtain a good representation from city schools, because of the educational features of the trip, will be made this week, when speakers from the chamber and other civic bodies will appear before student bodies. Speakers also will appear before the service clubs this week, it was stated.

PAIR ARRAIGNED FOR BURGLARY
Mrs. Vivian Petry, alias Mrs. Vivian Cannon and Al Cannon, both of Los Angeles, were arraigned before Justice of the Peace K. E. Morrison Monday on charges of burglary, and were held under $2500 bail each pending their preliminary hearing Feb. 4. Cannon was arrested Jan. 13 by Huntington Beach police and charged with the burglary of the Huntington Beach municipal camp grounds. Mr. Petry was arrested Sunday when she went to the county jail to visit Cannon.

Engineer J. L. McBride, were approved.

Mayor Rowland read a letter from Mayor F. H. LaGuardia of New York, president of the United States conference of mayors, asking the city of Santa Ana to join the conference. The membership fee is $100 a year. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

Mr. McBride reported that deeds to five pieces of property needed for widening of South Main street have been pledged to the city by the owners of the property if the city will open and maintain a dead end alley. The matter was referred to Street Commissioner Ernest Layton.

D. A. V. MEMBERS TO DISCUSS COMING SESSIONS

Important future meetings, scheduled on the Disabled American Veterans calendar, will be discussed at tomorrow night's meeting of Jack Fisher chapter, D. A. V. of the World war at the K. C. hall.

Sunday, Feb. 2, marks the semi-annual eighth district meeting of the D. A. V. organization at Riverside. With the annual mid-winter meeting of the state department temporarily postponed, many local members are expected to attend the district session Sunday.

A report of progress is expected to be given by Harry S. Pickard, chairman, working with a committee of citizens who are sponsoring the Eighth Annual Military Ball, Feb. 20, in annual memorial to the chapter's deceased leader, Jack Fisher.

Other meetings include installation of officers of the Canadian Legion Post Feb. 7 and a visit to San Fernando hospital on Sunday, Feb. 9.

SOLICIT FUNDS FOR ETHIOPIA

To help meet the need of the Ethiopian Red Cross, Dr. John Wehrly, chairman of the Santa Ana chapter, American Red Cross, yesterday announced that the local unit will receive cash contributions for the Ethiopian fund.

His action followed receipt of a second letter from Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman of the American National Red Cross, at Washington, D. C., in which he set forth the pressing need of Ethiopia. In his communication, Admiral Grayson said:

"The Ethiopian Red Cross, to the extent of its means, is organizing and placing simple ambulance units in the field. Representatives of the International Red Cross report that from various sources it is near that the personnel can be secured for reasonable expense, that supplies can be secured more effectively by making funds available for use there than by shipment from this country, and that the greatest need is for funds."

"The Red Cross Societies of Great Britain, Norway, Sweden and The Netherlands are sending medical units to Ethiopia. The international committee of the Red Cross feels that the national societies nearest to the scene of operations can furnish supplies and personnel, and that the societies at a greater distance can at this time render most valuable assistance in the form of funds."

Admiral Grayson also advised the Santa Ana chapter that the Italian Red Cross continues in the position that it does not require assistance from the Red Cross societies of other nations and that, should the Italian Red Cross later change this position and request assistance, arrangements will be made for receiving contributions for the aid of the Italian Red Cross.

Contributions will be received by the chapter treasurer, H. L. Hanson, First National bank, or Dr. John Wehrly, chapter chairman.

BUS PROPOSAL HEARING DUE

The city council will hold a special hearing in regard to the application of the Santa Fe Transportation company for permission to operate an intra-state bus service in California. One of the lines would pass through Santa Ana. The application has been made to the state railroad commission and the transportation company wishes approval of the city council. No date has been set for the special hearing.

Last night a letter was read to the council, showing statistical facts about the company and its proposed line.

Another letter on behalf of the Southern Pacific, the Pacific Electric, the Motor Transit and the Pacific Greyhound lines was read, asking the council to remain neutral. The matter was referred to the council as a committee of the whole. Representatives of interested parties will appear to present their views at the special session.

TAX BACHELORS, SPINSTERS? Here's New Plan to Collect

CHICAGO, Jan. 28. (AP)—Prof. Frank G. Dickinson, sociologist, recommended that taxes to meet old age pension costs be levied on bachelors, spinsters and childless married couples.

Originator of a mathematical system of rating college teams, Professor Dickinson, of the University of Illinois, says sociology recognizes that no generation repays the cost of its rearing to the parents who labored, worried and economized, but that this debt is discharged as each generation rears another group of children.

"Those adults who furnish no offspring dodge, avoid and refuse payment for their own conception, birth and rearing," he said. "If they refuse voluntarily to pay their debt to society, the state should tax them to pay the cost of old age assistance."

"Adults without progeny should bear this burden! That is social security with social justice."

Professor Dickinson said he had no definite plan of taxation to propose, but suggested that the federal social security act be changed to provide for revenue through a tax on incomes of the unwed and childless.

CALIF. GASOLINE SALES JUMP

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28. (AP) California gasoline sales on which taxes were paid amounted to 1,482,192,000 gallons in 1935. This was about 11 per cent more than the 1,334,233,000 of 1934. December sales were 114,839,000 gallons, an increase of only about 3 per cent over the 1934 month's 111,920,000.

It looks like rain, and the official forecast is for rainy weather, so prosperity has come to The Journal two-inch rain contest.

Inspired by the thought that the unseasonal weather could not last forever, six minor weather prophets hurried their predictions in to The Journal last night.

Remember the simple rules? Just guess the day and the hour on which you think Orange county's next two-inch rain will begin to fall, and send your guess to The Journal rain editor. Here are today's guesses:

H. Birt, 2210 Maple street, Santa Ana, Feb. 1, 4 p. m.; Dick Mather, 2022 North Ross, Feb. 2, 3 a. m.; Mrs. T. D. Kingsley, 316 Beverly place, Jan. 29, 9 a. m.; Mrs. Ethel H. Robb, 316 West Nineteenth street, Jan. 28, 3 a. m.; Bob Davy, 1321 West Eighth, Feb. 15, 2 p. m.; Louis Markel, 2128 North Greenleaf, Jan. 29, 2 a. m.

Mrs. Robb's guess, however, was not so good.

SANTA ANA'S FUTURE MWD TAX PAYMENTS STAGGER COUNCIL

CITY AUDITOR REPORTS ON FIGURES

Next Year's Levy to Be Nearly Double That During 1935-36

Members of the city council were staggered last night by tax figures showing Santa Ana's future contributions to the Metropolitan Water district.

City Auditor Lloyd Banks filed a written report showing that Santa Ana's tax in 1935-1936 will be $46,951.94, about $83,000 in 1936-37, and $145,000 a year when the district's bonds begin to mature in 15 years. The figures, he said, were tentative and based on present assessed valuations.

Must Pay for Water
In addition the city will have to pay for what water it gets from the district, Mr. Banks said. It is too early to estimate the cost of the distribution system to take care of the water to be used in Santa Ana.

Santa Ana's total payments for the period from 1929 to 1935 has been $51,325.70, Mr. Banks said. This has been for the preliminary organization period. The increase in taxes now is because of construction costs, he said. It has been estimated that the maximum tax rate necessary to provide Santa Ana's contributions to the district will be 60 to 75 cents.

However, when the district begins to sell water, it is planned by its board of directors to fix a charge for water high enough to take care of the interest and sinking fund payments, Mr. Banks said. This is expected to offset to a certain extent the tax contributions of member cities.

Delivery Starts in 1938
Mr. Blodgett's report on the legal side of the question showed that the city could withdraw from the district on a vote of the people, but that its financial obligations would go on and it would be deprived of benefits as a member of the district. He also said the city has no control over the amount of taxes to be collected and that county officers who collect the

The total tax paid by Santa Ana in the five-year period beginning in 1929 has been $98,277.64, Mr. Banks said. Payments by Anaheim and Fullerton, also members of the district, have been $36,634.37 and $56,383.55, respectively.

DEATH TAKES EX-ALASKA GOVERNOR

Scott C. Bone, Former Editor Succumbs in Santa Barbara

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 28. (AP)—Scott C. Bone, 75, former governor of Alaska and newspaper editor, is dead.

In ill health since 1928, when he supported Herbert Hoover's presidential candidacy at the Republican national convention in Chicago, Bone succumbed last night at his home here.

Spanning a period of nearly 40 years, Bone's newspaper career took him from Indianapolis publications to Washington, D. C., then to Seattle, Wash.

He became news editor of the Washington Post in 1888, later was elevated to managing editor, and after 17 years' service left to found and publish the Washington Herald.

From 1911 to 1918, Bone was editor-in-chief of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Bone was named governor of Alaska after directing publicity for the Republican national committee in 1919 and 1920. His four-year term expired in 1925.

Bone lived in Atascadero, Long Beach and Los Angeles, before finally making his permanent California home in Santa Barbara in 1931. Two daughters and five sons survive. They are Mrs. Alfred Wilcox, Santa Barbara; Mrs. John S. Starr, Beverly Hills; Carroll, Santa Barbara; Paul, Los Angeles; Roger, Pasadena; Scott W., Washington, D. C., and Robert D., Seattle.

call for volunteers. Any able-bodied young man in "civies" was fair game for patriotic young women who urged him to "sign up" and stuck a white feather in his hat if he hesitated.

The "defense of the realm" act, "dora" in popular parlance, substituted bank notes for gold coins, restricted business and pleasure and mobilized industry. Women went to work benches, learned to drive trucks and ambulances and nursed the wounded. Spy hunting and exposure of food hoarders were orders of the day.

Palace Set Example
Even before the people settled down from the first patriotic hysteria to the "carry on" attitude that marked them through the bloody years, the palace was setting an example of steadfastness.

Immediately following the tragedy at Sarajevo, King George had personally intervened with his cousins on the thrones of Germany and Russia, to prevent a conflict. When these overtures failed, he announced he would make every personal effort toward victory.

Visits to camps, trenches, munitions factories and hospitals cheered fighters and workers. Regular processions to parliament indicated the stability of the government and announcements of economy measures in the royal household were potent hints to the populace.

King George's personal purse was opened for contributions, not loans, to the treasury. His gift in 1918 alone was $500,000. He and Queen Mary gave $280,000 to a fund for disabled soldiers.

Monarchies Tumbled
In April America entered the war and King George attended church rites celebrating this addition to the allies. In 1918 he became the first British monarch to observe the Fourth of July, commemorating England's loss of the 13 colonies.

The final drives of the war, first by the Germans and then by the allies, expanded the casualty lists but ended the conflict and sent thrones tumbling all over Europe.

No suggestion of such a change was heard in the United Kingdom. Tomorrow—Post-War Problems

Santa Ana Legion to Open Offices For Helping Vets Secure Their Cash Bonuses

Plans were being rushed today to aid Orange county veterans in collecting their bonuses. With the baby bond bonus bill, passed over the President's veto, a law today, local leaders were joining with others throughout the nation in the gigantic task of helping to get the money to those entitled to it.

Harry Edwards, veterans' welfare officer for the county, said information is expected here immediately from Los Angeles headquarters of the Veterans' administration, as to when application blanks for the bonus will be available. At that time veterans will be informed through the newspapers and over KVOE, local radio station, that application blanks are available.

Offices to Open

Offices will be established in the American Legion hall here and will remain open until 8 p. m. to enable those who work during the day to make their applications.

Orange county veterans will receive approximately $2,000,000 from the bonus, according to figures released by Mr. Edwards last week. There are 4,000 or more eligible veterans in the county, he pointed out, and it is generally agreed that the average amount to be collected is $500. A recent American Legion survey, however, indicated that the sum due Orange county veterans was $2,567,000. Of this sum leaders expect that veterans will spend about $1,070,000

U. S. WILL TRY TO RECOVER AAA TAXES

Congress to Be Asked for Law Seeking Refunded Levies

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28. (AP)—Officials of the department of agriculture said today an attempt soon will be made to recover AAA taxes refunded to processors.

They said the department probably would proceed along one of two lines—ask congress to enact a retroactive tax or an excess profits levy.

They said retroactive taxes could be levied on all revenue from the time the old processing tax was enacted to the day of its invalidation at the hands of the supreme court. Assessments would be refunded to those who already had paid taxes to the government, but not to those whose payments had been impounded and returned to them by court order.

The second measure would aim at regaining as "excess profits" the $180,000,000 in processing taxes refunded under the so-called "rice millers' decision."

Mary Stoddard Grandma Reprimands Girl Who Is Fighting For Love of Married Man

By MARY STODDARD

Today's bit of advice to "Terribly Unhappy," the girl who is so hopelessly in love with a married man, comes from "Grandma."

It is to be hoped that the girl to whom it is written, and all other girls who might follow in her footsteps, will read this letter and digest it as it contains words of wisdom.

Dear Mary Stoddard: The story contained in the letter of an unhappy girl made me go back and live over a similar experience, although I am a great-grandmother. She said I don't want to lose his love in the effort to have him. This is the cry of "Terribly Unhappy." I wonder if you have ever heard of the law of compensation.

Everyone likes a good sport and I am sure this girl would like to be one, but she has already proven she is not one.

She can't take it, as the saying goes, "only the wife and the wife of this man to suffer because she was selfish and foolish."

She has forgotten one thing—this man was a little boy not so many years ago. He is bound to compare her unconsciously with any woman who would have broken up his mother and dad—he goes away back in his life—his wife becomes his mother, he becomes his son—that is why he hasn't told his wife. He compares the two. His wife counts 90 per cent and the girl can have the other 10 per cent if she is ever not dividing it with someone else.

Men like respectability. They may pull one woman down, but they must have a woman who represents what their mother was. That is the law. Play fair—that is the rule.

Men recognize the male right to compete, being men themselves, but not the woman's right to de-grade herself. That is why in most cases the other woman just doesn't rate in comparison.

RAIL SHARES LEAD STOCK ADVANCE

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Jan. 28. (AP)—Rallying rails gave the stock market a lift today, although the majority of price advances was in a fractional range.

The stock exchange, along with other major markets, postponed its opening in observance of King George's funeral. Trading was quite active following the opening going at 11 a. m. The greatest turnover was recovered by low-priced equities.

The dollar firmed against leading foreign exchanges. Cotton and grain backed and filled indifferently. U. S. Government securities improved and carrier bonds were in demand.

Rail shares gained up to a point or more included Santa Fe, N. Y., Central, Great Northern, Southern Pacific, Canadian Pacific and Pennsylvania. Douglas Aircraft got up about 2 points to a new high. Chrysler and General Motors were higher, as were Goodyear, American Telephone, International Telephone and Sears Roebuck. Lively advances were scored by Sparks Withington, Continental Motors, Armour, Commonwealth & Southern, Warner Bros. and General Cable. The steels were diffident and the mines lower.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Jan. 28. (AP)—Today's stock market was characterized principally in the rails, utilities and specialties. A number of new highs for the past several years were established with gains of fractions to 2 or more points. Scattered profit taking appeared near the end.

Notwithstanding postponement of the opening for an hour in observance of King George's funeral, transfers approximated 2,300,000 shares. The close was firm. Closing prices:

TROJAN RALLY HERE TONIGHT

"Fight On" will ring out of Green Cat cafe windows tonight at 6:30 o'clock when Trojan men of Orange county gather there for dinner, preceding the giant pre-Olympic rally at the Elks club at 8:15 o'clock.

Lloyd Verry, Fullerton, working with Oliver Corey, Trojan men's club field representative from the alumni office at U. S. C., has arranged the dinner. John "Sky" Dunlap, last year's president of the club, now in Los Angeles, will be a guest at the meeting.

Dean Cromwell, coach of the U. S. C. national championship track team, Foy Draper, captain of the 1936 track team at S. C. Kenny Carpenter, Troy's championship discus thrower, and other outstanding Trojans of track and field athletics will be present.

OFFICE PRACTICE CLASS WILL CLOSE TOMORROW NIGHT

Tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock at the Lathrop Junior High school the final meeting for the semester of the office practice class of the Santa Ana adult education department will be held.

The group, which has been devoting this month to modern information about the medical secretarial field, will hear Miss Isabel Durgan on the subject of "Tact in Your Contacts." Miss Durgan is director of nurses in the Orange County Health department and has had much experience in contacting private patients.

W. W. Wieman, principal of the Lathrop Evening High school, invites all nurses, doctors' secretaries or others interested in the medical secretarial field to be present. Questions as to tactful

$700 'Cello, More Than 60 Years Old, Is Stolen Here

Here is a candidate for the meanest man in the world.

Last night when Thor Walberg, head of the music department of Fullerton High school, was in Santa Ana, someone broke into his car and stole a 'cello valued at $700. The thief broke two windows in the small car and managed to pull the big 'cello through the opening in one of the windows. The car was parked near Broadway and Sixth street.

The cash value of the stolen instrument is of secondary importance, according to a report filed by Mr. Walberg with Santa Ana police, who said the 'cello is more than 60 years old. It was made in Mittenevold, Germany in 1875 by Arnold Ritter, and is considered to be a masterpiece of workmanship.

RED CROSS WILL ELECT HERE

Officers will be elected at the annual meeting of the Santa Ana chapter of Red Cross Thursday night at 7 o'clock in the farm bureau assembly, 622 North Main street.

The nominating committee, composed of Harry Edwards, chairman; Mrs. J. H. Leebick and Miss Hazel Bemis, will make a report. Mrs. Esther Chadbourne, field representative for Southern California, will speak. Miss Beas Simpson, Orange, instructor and proffessor of Braille for Los Angeles and Orange, will give a demonstration. A first-aid demonstration has been arranged by Mr. Edwards, who will fill the recently organized first aid stations on the highway.

Miss Bemis, in charge of Junior Red Cross work, will give an exhibit.

Everyone with membership in the Red Cross is invited to attend the meeting. Dr. John Wehrly, chairman, will preside.

EDISON SCHOOL PLAN OFFERED

Plans for the reconstruction and repairing of the Edison grammar school auditorium were discussed by members of the school board last night, when Jules Markel, member of the grand jury schools committee, reported on his findings.

Mr. Markel expressed a belief that the building could be reinforced by installing a system of steel girders and braces, thereby making the structure safe for occupancy. Mr. Markel also suggested that the tile roof, which he estimated to weigh approximately 17 tons, be removed and a lighter roof put in its place. He said he believed the whole thing could be done for less than $4000. If the price of reconstruction exceeds that amount, it will be necessary to have the approval of the state board of building reconstruction.

The work then would have to comply with the code set up by the state board.

D. C. Allison, architect, in commenting on the plans, said he did not believe it would be necessary to remove the tile roof, saying it does not constitute a hazard. He said that if the system of bracing as outlined by Mr. Markel was carried out, it would not be necessary to remove the roof. The board did not take any action on the matter.

CARPENTERS HONOR BUSINESS MANAGER AT DOUBLE FETE

In celebration of his birthday and wedding anniversary, Norris Stone, business agent for the Carpenters union, was honored at a surprise party at Carpenters hall, 402 West Fourth street, last Saturday night.

Fort-luck supper was served at 6:30 o'clock. On the entertainment which followed, a male quartet, composed of Frank Kaub, George Rupert, Ed Beaudette and Bob Bowen, sang. Tap dancing and soft shoe numbers were given by Laura La Rue and Jean Cummings. Miss La Rue gave two readings and her sister, Catherine La Rue, presented another.

Dancing followed the program. The honored guest was presented a leather coat and numerous smaller presents from the union. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stone were presented a bouquet of flowers in observance of their eleventh wedding anniversary. Carpenters union No. 1815, No. 1648 and No. 2203 joined for the party.

ANYTHING but LOVE
by JANET DORAN

Alma Whitaker, social butterfly in the little town of Burnwood, falls in love with Johnny Anthony, a nobody who turns up from nowhere and becomes golf pro at the country club. He seems to be in love with her but, because of some mysterious secret in his past, flings up a barrier between them.
When Alma's father goes bankrupt and suffers a breakdown, her Aunt Harriet Falken takes them into their home and tries to marry her off to the rich Sig Borkdike. She rejects him but, when Johnny hears a rumor that they are engaged, she doesn't deny it.
Caroline Travers, friend of Alma's, asks her and Johnny to supper, and they go.
